A Summary Otter Attacks on People and Pets in Florida

UNDER CONSTRUCTION

Information for this summary is being compiled. Once completed the summary will contain a listing of recent and historical otter attacks on people and pets in Florida. Please check back periodically. Thank you for your patience! Victor L. Camp. In the meantime, if you or someone you know has been attacked, or had their pet attacked, by a river otter in Florida, please consider or recommend submission of either of the otter attack reports accessible through the following hyperlink: Form to Report an Attack on People
